

QUESTIONS FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

BEHOLDING GLORY
2 CORINTHIANS 3:18
MAY 27, 2018

1. Are you being transformed? Can you see tangible transformation in your life from the moment you first believed until the present day? If not, why?
2. Is Christ the most precious and the most satisfying Treasure in your possession by faith? Has His value only increased to you over time? If not, why?
3. How are you specifically more like Christ today than a week ago? Than a month ago? Than a year ago? Than when you first believed?
4. What are your daily/weekly habits for beholding the all-satisfying glory of Jesus Christ? How do these habits expose your heart to the beauty and majesty of God in Christ?
5. According to 2 Cor. 3:18, how does the Spirit of the Lord use those means to do the internal and supernatural work of transforming you into the image of the Lord?
6. Which attributes and/or works of Christ have been especially transformative for you lately? What about your Lord has recently increased your love for Him?
7. Which condescension of Christ in the incarnation most captivated you? How does that condescension specifically draw your heart to greater love for Him?
8. In what specific ways can you reorient and reschedule your daily life moving forward to behold the glory of your Lord and Savior with higher quantity and quality?

I. Introduction

"Whoever is not satisfied with Christ alone, strives after something beyond absolute perfection." John Calvin

II. Growing from Glory

III. Gazing at Glory