

QUESTIONS FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. Why must sound doctrine be the proper foundation for godly living? Give some examples of how this works.
2. Why is it important for the church to include young and old together? What are some practical ramifications of this?
3. How are you pursuing discipleship from someone else? What is keeping you from being discipled?
4. How are you discipling someone else? What is keeping you from spiritually investing in others?
5. Does verse 5 prohibit a wife from working outside the home? What if a married woman feels more suited to a career than to being a homemaker?
6. Where is the balance between the “silent” witness of a godly life versus being a bold verbal witness for Christ?

“You will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and even to the remotest part of the earth.”
Acts 1:8

“We are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming; but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him who is the head, even Christ.”
Ephesians 4:14-15

“The things which you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses, entrust these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also.”
2 Timothy 2:2
