

QUESTIONS FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

1. What strong conviction about the Lord did David have throughout his perilous circumstances? How can that encourage us today in our own difficulties?
2. When David was suffering the pain of betrayal by someone close to him, what good model did he leave for us to follow?
3. Do you have friends that help you to trust God? How are you being a faithful friend to others?
4. What mistake did David make with Ziba? Why was David vulnerable to that mistake?
5. Why did David allow Shimei's attacks to continue?
6. As you look back on your life as a Christian, can you discern the hidden sovereignty of God in some of its events?

“He who walks with the wise grows wise, but a companion of fools suffers harm.”
Proverbs 13:20

“Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work; If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up!”
Ecclesiastes 4:9-10

“Intimate friends are those few people with whom we have regular contact and a deep commitment. We are not only open and vulnerable with these people, we anxiously await their counsel. Intimate friends are just as free to criticize and to correct as they are to embrace and encourage, because trust and mutual understanding has been established between them.”
