

QUESTIONS FOR SPIRITUAL GROWTH

LIFE OF DAVID PART 25:
THE SONG OF SALVATION
2 SAMUEL 22
SEPTEMBER 2, 2018

1. How does it encourage you to see in Chapter 22 how the Lord pulled out all the stops to rescue just one man?
2. We cannot overemphasize the righteousness God gives us through Christ's work for us, but do we underemphasize the importance of actual righteous living?
3. Do you spend enough time thinking about the many evidences in Scripture that show how invincible and sure the kingdom of God is? How can you remind yourself of how big God is and how small people and problems are?
4. Can you think of events in your own life when God's good purpose for you was forwarded quite independently of human planning, either yours or that of others?

“And because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me—to keep me from exalting myself! Concerning this I entreated the Lord three times that it might depart from me. And He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness.” Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may dwell in me. Therefore I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties, for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong.” 2 Corinthians 12:7–10

“We Christians, I have observed, frequently have trouble believing the Lord is our only hope, security, light, and strength because we are so prone to try everything else. We automatically depend upon everything except the Lord. Yet still He waits there for us—patiently waiting to show Himself strong.” Charles Swindoll
